2022 Bradenton Area River Regatta Being Broadcast on 10 Networks Across the Country

BRADENTON, Fla.—Regarded as the largest spectator event in Manatee County, the Bradenton Area River Regatta will be showcased and enjoyed by thousands of spectators from across the country in 2022.

Racer H2O has agreed to film and broadcast this year's seventh annual Regatta, scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 12 along the shorelines of Palmetto and Bradenton, via 11 regional networks across the country, according to Mike Fetchko, president of ISM/USA, the event manager.

The taped broadcast will feature the Superleague Powerboat action on the Manatee River as well as the ALL FREE slate of family-fun interactive activities and chart-topping musical entertainment. The show could reach 200,000 households across the country.

"We are beyond excited to be bringing RACER H2O's cameras to Bradenton to kick off the 2022 racing season," said RACER H2O's Jarred Romesburg, president/owner of Media Group LLC and producer of RACER H2O. "Our show will cover the Powerboat Superleague racing, the Bradenton region, and all of the free family fun offered by the Regatta and then deliver it to millions across the country and around the world."

The 30-minute show will air in March (specific date is still undetermined) on the following networks:

- beIN Sports
- FTF Sports
- Bally Sports Southeast
- AT&T Sports Net Pittsburgh
- AT&T Sports Net Southwest
- AT&T Sports Net Rocky Mountain
- AT&T Sports Net Las Vegas
- New England Sports Net (NESN)
- Mid Atlantic Sports Net (MASN)
- Altitude
- ROOT Sports Northwest
